Island of St. Pete Beach

Location

Recently voted #1 beach destination in the USA by TripAdvisor and known as the "Sunset Capital of Florida," the island of St. Pete Beach is home to both TradeWinds Island Resorts – the TradeWinds Island Grand and Guy Harvey Outpost, a TradeWinds Beach Resort.

Located on the Pinellas County peninsula on Florida's central west coast, just 30 minutes from Tampa, the island of St. Pete Beach is bordered on the east by Boca Ciega Bay and the Intracoastal Waterway and on the west by the Gulf of Mexico. St. Pete Beach provides a true island ambiance with quick access to everything the Tampa Bay area offers, as well as the surrounding major metropolitan areas. The Interstate exit for the TradeWinds is the quickest beach exit from the Tampa International Airport.

Top-Rated Beaches

The St. Petersburg/Clearwater area is home to America's award-winning beaches, including Caladesi Island State Park – named #1 in 2008 by Coastal Geologist, Dr. Stephen Leatherman, aka "Dr. Beach." Fort De Soto Park – a pristine, seven-mile beach just minutes from the TradeWinds – was also #1 in America in 2005 and recently recognized as the nation's "Best Family Beach" by Parents magazine.

Air Travel Access

Tampa International Airport

Tampa International Airport (TPA) consistently ranks as one of the world's top airports, offering nonstop air service to over 70 cities and easy connections to every major city in the world.

A perfect place to land, always easy and convenient, TPA was selected as the 6th favorite airport in the world by CNN Poll. Newly renovated restrooms throughout the main terminal with high definition video walls and four new Visitor Information Centers in baggage claim are part of a $30 million modernization.

It is located 30 minutes from the resort, and offers extensive ground transportation, including most rental car companies, commercial taxi and shuttle companies.

St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport
Located just 25 minutes from the resort, the St. Petersburg-Clearwater airport is serviced by several different international and domestic airline carriers. Car rental, shuttle and taxi transfers are available.

Both airports offer multiple direct flights daily from major and secondary cities.

Car Travel Access

Located just 10 minutes off I-275 at Exit 17, St. Pete Beach is easily accessible from both I-75 and I-4.

30 minutes from Tampa
90 minutes from Orlando
Four-and-a-half hours from Miami

Rental car service is conveniently located at the TradeWinds Island Grand Resort.
