TradeWinds Island Grand

Featuring artfully prepared meals, the Palm Court Italian Grill serves inventive culinary dishes that explore all of the different regions of Italy. From the heartwarming risotto and fresh gnocci indicative of the countryside of Northern Italy to Costolette DIAgnello (rack of lamb) that transports guests to a trattoria in Lombardy, guests of this elegant restaurant may choose to dine indoors surrounded by colorful artwork or outdoors under the stars on the courtyard patio. A richly burnished cruvinet in the Palm Court Bistro invite patrons to linger a little longer and sample a selection of 16 fine wines served by the glass. Additional diversions include Starbucks® coffee served in a French press or an elegant Numi Blooming Tea. When steeped in hot water, the hand crafted tea flowers delicately bloom into breathtaking shapes and exotic flavors. All of these tempting options can be partnered with an array of unique dessert specialties including Limoncello frozen sorbet and Stracciatella, a milk chocolate and imported vanilla bean gelato sprinkled with cocoa-covered hazelnuts.

Guests who order specially-marked seafood from the menu are presented a tag number which is directly tied to the Gulf Wild™ TransparenSea™ system. Diners can visit the myGulfWild.com web site and type in their unique tag number to see the specific fish type, a photo and biographic information on the captain, harvesting vessel's name and background, documented location where the fish was caught and more. Gulf Wild fish is randomly tested by higher standards than the federal government's so TradeWinds Island Grand diners will know their seafood selection is the freshest and healthiest available.
